

Global M&A Network Presents Robust Program for the

ASIA M&A Summit

October 14, 15, 16, 2008, Shanghai, China

June 16, 2008 New York:

Global M&A Network in alliance with Shanghai Zhangjiang (Group) Co., Ltd, Asia-America Chamber of Commerce and Massachusetts Technology Center presents the program of the first annual Asia M&A Summit and Asia M&A Atlas Awards, held at the elegant Dongjiao State Guest Hotel in Shanghai, China.

High-ranking global business executives and influential government leaders will gather over 3-days to explore the growing influence and competitiveness of Asia—and notably China on the world business communities and financial markets.

Program Highlights:

Day One will explore the growing mergers and acquisitions activities in China and include top leaders from Chinese business and governmental communities; among other topics of regulation and reform.

Day Two: will feature insights from Asia Sovereign Wealth Funds; perspectives from Private Equity and Venture Capital, keynote on “Importance of Innovation”; and concurrent sessions on “high growth sectors” as well as elements of success in deal-making from the due diligence to integration processes.

Day Three: will examine the increasing influence of Asia Pacific economies on global financial markets; the climate for M&A transactions in India, and an unbeatable three-hour deal driven networking occasion at the Asia Deal Exchange.

ASIA M&A ATLAS AWARDS™ GALA, will recognize and celebrate achievements of professionals and firms who set the performance standards for the industry at large.

To obtain additional information; to sponsor or to speak, at this milestone event, visit web-site: www.globalmanetwork.com

---

Shanghai Zhangjiang (Group), Co., Ltd. is a company that develops and manages ZJ Hi-Tech Park. Shanghai Zhangjiang Hi-Tech Park (ZJ Hi-Tech Park), founded in July 1992, is located in the middle part of Pudong New Area with the primary mission of highlighting the significance of innovation and entrepreneurship by developing integrated circuit, software and biotech & pharmaceutical.

By the end of 2007, ZJ High-Tech Park has introduced totally 5,359 new enterprises as well as attracted foreign investment of 17.4 billion USD across many industries, including medical devices, bio-tech, pharmaceutical, renewable & clean energy, education, software, IT, IC, semiconductor, telecommunication, industrial good and consumer products.

Additional information is available at: www.zipark.com

Asia-America Chamber of Commerce is a network of over 1,500 senior executives of New England companies in manufacturing, technology, distribution, medical devices, energy, private equity, and services. The Chamber's mission is to connect CEOs, COOs, CTOs, CFOs, CIOs of emerging and established mid-market companies in New England and in Asia. Such connections will build partnerships, create an Asia-America business community, and foster profitable business opportunities.

Additional information is available at www.asia-america-chamber.org

Massachusetts Technology Center (MATC), headquartered in Massachusetts, USA, provides a beachhead for business entities and organizations in Massachusetts and other US states to enter into the booming China market in a fast, safe and cost-effective way. Massachusetts Technology Center Shanghai (MATC Shanghai), a subsidiary of MATC, is located in Shanghai Zhangjiang Hi-Tech Park.

MATC Shanghai makes available contact offices for venture capital firms, private equity firms, investment banks and state-level trade and investment agencies. MATC Shanghai's services include free consultative services, workstation and desk rental, incubator space rental, office building rental, company registration, office set-up and build-out, market research, recruitment, front-desk and back-office operations, HR, legal, tax and accounting services, as well as IT and network services.

Additional information is available at: <http://www.matechcenter.com>